Marxist Dominated National

CLERGYMAN REVIEWS PAST
RECORD OF N. C. C.

By Rev. Harvey Taylor

State Senator Alpheus Decker of Deckersville, Mich., has branded the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, sponsored by the National Council of Churches of Christ as "devil-inspired", anti-Christ and Communist-inspired. Shocking that the very Word of God be used or rather misused, to further the work of anti-Christian forces? Not to those who are aware of the Satanic workings of the Communist mind. It is a known fact that in order to achieve their nefarious purposes—the destruction of Christianity and world enslavement, the Communist must infiltrate every segment of society. Religion is no exception. Rather, it is one of their most effective fronts. J. Edgar Hoover, a man in a position to know a great deal about subversive groups has said: "I confess to a real apprehension so long as Communists are able to secure ministers of the gospel to promote their evil work."

NCC a Marxist Front

To better understand the implications of this brazen attempt to undermine the basic beliefs of Christianity some background material is necessary. The Revised Standard Version of the Bible which was presented to the public with much fanfare on Sept. 30, 1952 was "authorized" by the NCC. Now, even if this version of the Bible were found to be without error, the fact that it was the work of the National Council would cause much speculation. The record of this organization, its members in the higher echelons and its activities under its former name reads like a page out of the Daily Worker. In exposing the National Council of Churches, we wish to point out that nothing in this article is meant to be a reflection on the many God-fearing Christians who unknowingly are a part of this organization. Our objective is to unmask the traitors who use religion as a front, to uncover the terrifying significance of their blasphemous Bible and to urge those whose churches are affiliated with the Council to take the necessary action.

FCC Aided Atheistic Communism

The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, the original title of the organization now known as the National Council of Churches, followed the Red line to such an extent that the Military Intelligence Association (May 12, 1927) reported the following: "We charge that the Federal Council of Churches of Christ meddles loosely in international questions and that it plays either wittingly or unwittingly squarely into the hands of the Communist Internationale—The World Revolutionists." MAY GOD AND THE TRUTH INSPIRE CONGRESS TO SAVE AMERICA

BARNEY BARUCH was never elected by the American people to any position—not even as dogcatcher.

BARUCH is the "elder SPOKESMAN" for a ZIONIST WORLD EMPIRE and nullification of American sovereignty.

If BARUCH'S warmongering for, and American regimentation during, World War I, was not a conspiratorial choice, World War I, it was a traitorous failure. America's atomic secrets were given to our enemies by masses of planted, unimpeded SPIES.

BARUCH—whose orders you are supposed to respect—spent $10,000 to bring home the Communist Party's church-burners and clergy-torturers from Christian Spain.

One of these beneficiaries of BARUCH was Israel Regenstrief alias JOHN GATES (TIME, 1/2/39), the convicted editor of the Communist Party's Daily Worker.

NOW

American blood is being shed in an unauthorized "police action" in Korea, to also bleed white this most Christianized Asiatic country, prevent their independence, then turn in the long American-trained Chinese troops from Formosa to subjugate Korea and China under another Zionist-run dictatorship.

WITHIN SIXTY DAYS WAR?

A quick war, with or without the consent of CONGRESS, is reportedly planned within 60 days. The Zionists are now ready to supplant their Soviet brethren. There is no difference between Palestinian Socialism and Russian Socialism. Palestine is soldly MARXIST in leadership, in political parties, in rule, aim, and objective. BARUCH'S only authority is his own bold arrogance, his conviction that altho he has advised America into mass death and astronomical debt A-GAIN and A-GAIN and A-GAIN, that you will kneel to his will and sacrifice your country!

In the name of God and justice to the American people DO NOT SET UP BARUCH'S MOBILIZATION ORDER to regiment men, women and their YOUNG to serve and die in another PLANNED UNITED NATIONS WAR!

WRITE! WIRE!

PROTEST TO YOUR REPRESENTATIVES TODAY!

The enclosed went to every Congressman today March 24th, 1953.

Perhaps you saw BARNEY BARUCH over TV, or heard him on radio telling Congress what to do?

Before every fresh holocaust BARNEY comes before Congress for legislation in preparation for harnessing and slaughtering "the people who are like an ass-slaves who are considered the property of the master"—the Talmudists (Keth. 111a), as we are called.

Are we "asses", we "slaves" to be harnessed and slaughtered AGAIN without protest? Let CONGRESS KNOW THE SENTIMENT OF THE COUNTRY ON ANOTHER ZIONIST WAR FROM YOUR SECTION! It is unfair to assume they will not heed the real VOICE OF AMERICA unless we make some effort to be heard.

You and your neighbor's 19 year old boy is scheduled to be drafted for GLOBAL ZIONISM this next month in 41 states. Our blood and treasure are being strewn across the earth with little complaint from us "slaves who are considered the property of the MASTER."

Dulles - Red International Conspirator

By Arthur L. Andrews

John Foster Dulles is thought by some to be a Communist because of his long association with the Federal Council of Churches of Christ, a Communist-front group which has been cited many times for its Red activities and to which he has been legal counsel and mastermind. He is thought by others to be a Nazi, because he was involved in the Hitler seizure of power in Germany and later represented the Nazi cartels in the United States during the 1930s.

John Foster Dulles is neither a Communist nor a Nazi. He is, however, one of the most sinister figures in America. He received his training in international intrigue from a man who was publicly denounced by Congressman Henry T. Rainey as the most dangerous man in America, William Nelson Cromwell. Dulles' brother, Allen W. Dulles has an equally sinister background. As President of the Council on Foreign Relations, the central group for the leading Communist-front and pro-Red organizations in America, Allen Dulles had guided our Central Intelligence Agency for the past five years, and has now been named head of it. The Central Intelligence Agency, believed by many to be a tool of the Zionists, was denounced in 1950 because it was sending information on Arab troop strength to the Israeli Intelligence, of which it has been called a branch. Allen Dulles was a director of the J. Henry Schroeder Banking House during the 1930s, while that bank was personal banker to Adolf Hitler and the financier of his success. Later, by his own admission, Allen Dulles masterminded the nearly successful attempt on Hitler's life on July 20, 1944.

While still a schoolboy, John Foster Dulles got his first taste of international conspiracy when he accompanied his grandfather, former Secretary of State John W. Foster, to the Hague Conference in 1907. In 1919, both Allen and John Foster Dulles accompanied their uncle, Robert Lansing, who was then Secretary of State to Woodrow Wilson, to the Paris Peace Conference of 1919. Allen Dulles held the title of legal adviser to our State Department. John Foster Dulles was for a while secretary to his uncle, who was publicly thanked by Rabbi Wise in Wise's autobiography "Challenging Years", for his distinguished service to Zionism at the Peace Conference. Here the Dulles brothers found that the road to success in American politics demanded lip-service to Zionism. They were happy to oblige. Allen Dulles became head of the Division of Near Eastern Affairs including Palestine in the State Department, which he resigned in 1926 to join his brother in the law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, with Eustace Seligman, scion of the international Jewish banking family.

John Foster Dulles made even better connections at the Paris Peace conference. He became a member of the Supreme Economic Council with Bernard Baruch when his uncle went home and Baruch put him up as the first American member of the American Reparations Commission. This gave Dulles a position of enormous power in Germany, which he continued to hold through both the Weimar Republic and the Hitler regime. When the tide changed, his brother plotted to assassinate Hitler.

During the 1930s, John Foster Dulles was a director of International Nickel Corporation, which has virtually a monopoly on the world's trade in nickel. This company is controlled by Sir Alfred Mond, Jew, who controlled the Imperial Chemical Ltd. of England. Imperial Chemical is one of the big four in world chemicals, and Dulles's tie-up with them through International Nickel, as well as the fact that he was legal representative of the giant chemical combine, I. G. Farben of Germany, which was controlled by the Warburg family, shows how he has been the tool for such Jewish multi-millionaires as Warburg, Mond, and Eugene Meyer, Jew, who controls Allied Chemical and Dye Corp., another one of the big four in world chemicals. Eugene Meyer owns the Washington Post which is regarded as the Washington edition of the Daily Worker.

A member of the Rockefeller family through his marriage with Janet Avery, John Foster Dulles is the senior partner of the highest-priced international law firm in the world. Sullivan and Cromwell despite its dignified exterior, has a rather shabby reputation. We quote from the U. S. House Hearings on Panama, 1913, page 206, which reprints the legal brief and the staggering fees which William Nelson Cromwell demanded from the Panama Canal Company for his successful revolution. Cromwell describes his firm as follows:

"As far as the business of the great corporations is concerned in the United States the general counsel is, as a rule, the guiding spirit and has control. The law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell occupies a recognized position among the great legal corps of the nation. In the course of a very active thirty years, the firm of Sullivan and Cromwell has found itself placed in intimate relations, susceptible of being used to advantage, with men possessing power and influence everywhere in the United States; they have also come to know, and be in a position to influence, a considerable number of men in political life, in financial circles, and on the press, and all these influences and relations were of great utility in their performance of their duties in the Panama matter. Public opinion demanded the Nicaragua Canal. The daily press and the magazines of this country were entirely favorable to the Nicaragua Canal, and it was only by the greatest special personal efforts that it was possible to get them to take interest in Panama."

This is William Nelson Cromwell the mentor of John Foster Dulles, who stands condemned as a briber and revolutionist. His special personal efforts consisted of signing checks, which were mailed out to the press to get them to print his propaganda in favor of Panama.

We quote at such length because to understand John Foster Dulles you must understand William Nelson Cromwell, who taught Dulles his mastery of international conspiracy, subterfuge, fraud, revolution, and war. To continue from the New York World's revelations.

"On October 4, 1906, the World printed a story that Cromwell had the run of the White House and the War Department after the sale of the Panama Canal to the United States. Mr. Cromwell took an active part in promoting the revolution on the Isthmus which took the canal territory from Colombia and created the Republic of Panama and that the Roosevelt Administration had advance knowledge of the manufactured revolution and took steps to make it a success by having warships at hand. The revolution occurred at the time set. On May 9, 1904, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw signed the $40 million warrant, the largest ever drawn by the department, in payment for the canal property. What Mr. Cromwell got out of this has always been conjectural. He was to get a 5 per cent commission and pay all the expenses himself. Five per cent of $40 million is $2 million, but it costs something to manufacture a revolution. On January 2 last a cablegram from Paris to the New York newspapers stated that Mr. Cromwell's bill to the Panama Canal Co. was $742,167.77. The bill was finally arbitrated at $125,000. The arbitrators in lopping $300,000 from Cromwell's bill took into consideration that for nine and a half years the Canal Co. had paid him an annual retainer of $10,000.

The World carried a story on Oct. 19, 1908, "That Mr. Cromwell contributed funds to the revolutionary party in Panama was admitted by Mr. Cromwell himself in the presence of Secretary Taft. This admission was made at a banquet given in the Isthmus in December, 1904. In his speech Cromwell referred to a provision of the Constitution of Panama which gave all financial contributors to the revolution the right of citizenship. Cromwell declared that he had contributed largely to the revolutionists treasury and was therefore entitled to citizenship. Forty thousand dollars was given to the son of the President of Panama, $35,000 in silver to the Admiral in charge of the Columbian garrison."

"Bribes were paid through drafts on J. P. Morgan Co. through Isaac Brandon Bros., Columbian officers received in bribes $1,270,000 through this Panama banking house."

On page 29 of the Hearings, "The story of Mr. Cromwell's encouragement of the revolutionists and then of his cold-bloodedly abandoning them to their fate was told in detail by Jose Ajustin Arango in a pamphlet entitled 'Datos historicos para la Independencia del Istmo', dated November 28, 1905. It is partly accurate in all the details."

On page 53, Congressman Rainey says, "The declaration of independence which was promulgated in Panama on the 3rd of November of 1903 was prepared in the office of William Cromwell of New York. Our State Department was a party to the agreement that a revolution should occur on that date, the 3rd of November, 1903, and that day was selected for the reason the papers of the United States would be filled with election news and would not give much attention to news from Panama."

This reminds us of the similar appointment of Anna Rosenberg to be Assistant Secretary of Defense which was also done in an election news period so that patriots might overlook the appointment of a rabid Red-fronter alien Communist Jew to be in charge of sending our boys to the slaughter-pits of Korea.

The final statement on William Nelson Cromwell, the tutor of John Foster Dulles, was made by Congressman Rainey on page 61 of these Hearings, as follows:

"The revolutionists were in the pay of the Panama Railroad and Steamship Co., a New Jersey Corporation. The representative of that corporation was William Cromwell. He was the revolutionist who promoted and made possible the revolution on the Isthmus of Panama. At that time he was a shareholder in the railroad and its general counsel. William Cromwell—the most dangerous man this country has produced since the days of Aaron Burr—is a professional revolutionist."

Has John Foster Dulles inherited Cromwell's title of "the most dangerous man in America? Or does his brother Allen Dulles hold the title? At any rate, William Cromwell would have been proud of his pupil and protege in June of 1950, when John Foster Dulles spent several interesting days on the 38th parallel in Korea the week before the shooting started, and then wired for American boys to be sent to the slaughter.

Former Ambassador to Germany William Dodd makes many references to John Foster Dulles in "Ambassador Dodd's Diary" Harcourt Brace 1941. He mentions Dulles as the representative of many American banks including the Chase and the National City banks, which at that time held more than $100,000,000 in German bonds. Kuhn, Loeb Co held more than $600,000,000 of German short-term credits, and Dulles represented Americans holding one billion and five hundred millions of dollars in German bonds. These Americans knew they couldn't get all of that money, but they wanted some of it. Under the Socialistic Weimer Republic, the Marxist Jews who controlled the German trade unions had gotten so powerful that the corporations weren't making any profit. Even worse, the trade unions had cut productions down so low that the factories were ready to close, Germany would collapse, and these Americans would lose everything. Obviously steps must be taken at once, and it was John Foster Dulles' mission to see that they were taken.

The historian Otto Lehmann-Russeldt, in his book, "Aggression", Hutchinson Co. London, 1942, says on page 44,

"Hitler was invited to a meeting at the Schroder Bank on January 4, 1933. He promised to break the power of the trade unions."

Senator Pepper, in the New York Times of Oct. 11, 1944, charged that John Foster Dulles, Kurt von Papen, and Baron von Schroder met in at that meeting in the Cologne branch of the Schroder Bank on Jan. 4, 1933, and the Nazis were assured of plenty of funds for their program at that meeting. To bear this out, it should be remembered that John Foster Dulles became the American representative of the German cartels, and that this brother, Allen Dulles, now head of our Central Intelligence Agency, became a director of the Schroder Bank, which held Hitler's personal account. Baron Kurt von Schroder became a Lieutenant General in the S.S. Corps. During the war, these men turned on Hitler and tried to assassinate him.

Who were the "Americans" who sent John Foster Dulles to Germany to pull their chestnuts out of the fire? One was Paul Warburg, who feared for his family holdings in the giant I. G. Farben Corporation, as well as his firm of Kuhn Loeb Co.'s loans to the German Republic. Another was Bernard Baruch, who controlled the German Electrical Trust, A. E. G., of which his stooge, Gerard Swope, a Jew remained a director throughout the Hitler regime until the outbreak of the war. Swope lists himself as a director of A. E. G. in Who's Who in American Jewry, 1938-39, which raises doubts as to Hitler's anti-Semitism. Baruch also controlled the firm of Dillon, Read, (Dillon was born Lapowitz) which put up the money for reorganizing the German steel trust in 1924 through Fritz Thyssen, who was later called the Man Behind Hitler. The Man Behind Thyssen was Dillon, and the Man Behind Dillon was Barney Baruch. Many millions of dollars were at stake in these corporations, and Hitler was the only man who could prevent the Jewish Marxists from taking over these properties. That is why John Foster Dulles went to Germany, and came back as lawyer for the German cartels during the Hitler regime.

The Dulles-Hitler honeymoon cracked up during the war. For one thing, Hitler decided that the Jews were a danger to Germany while she was fighting the armies of American and English Jewry, and locked them up. Therefore, Allen W. Dulles was sent to Switzerland as European director of the Office of Strategic Services, and the Vice-President of the J. Henry Schroder Banking Co. of which Allen Dulles was director, V. Lada-Mocarski, was sent to Switzerland as Vice-Consul. James Stewart Martin, on page 106 of his book, "All Honorable Men" says that Allen Dulles maintained steady contacts with German business men from his post in Switzerland. Allen Dulles himself, in his book, "Germany's Underground" Macmillan Co. 1947, says on page 125,

"I reached Switzerland as the tide of war turned in November of 1942. I was the last American to reach Switzerland legally before the German invasion of France cut the Swiss off completely . . . German officials and businessmen who had a legitimate reason to travel were able to come and go with some freedom . . . Various clues led me to Hans Gisevius and through him I was able at a relatively early date to make contact with the conspirators who planned and carried out the July 20, 1944 plot."

Allen Dulles also gave credit to the Jewish banking family Wallenberg of Sweden for doing much to help carry out the attempted assassination of Hitler.

The Dulles family maintains its interests in Germany. Thus Eleanor Dulles, sister of these two patriots, arrived in Berlin Jan. 8, 1953, according to an AP dispatch, for a study of West Berlin's economic situation. She is Assistant for Economic Affairs to James W. Riddleberger, the director of the State Department's German affairs Bureau.

John Foster Dulles had already accepted the post of Secretary of State in Dewey's Cabinet in 1948, when that worthy snatched defeat from the jaws of victory. Dulles, however, was not to be tapped by the votes of the American people. He became Secretary of State anyway, the mastermind of the Zionist puppet Dean Acheson. With the odd title of "Republican Adviser to the Secretary of State," John Foster Dulles hurried off to Korea, and a war was born. Dulles' role in inaugurating this wholesale slaughter of American boys cannot be overemphasized. Beverly given concerning the Federal Council's support of the Communist movement in China.

In the Congressional Record for 1935, the following statement appears, made by the United States Naval Intelligence with reference to the Federal Council: "... which while not openly advocating the 'force and violence' principles of the Communist party give aid and comfort to the Communist movement and party. ... It is a large and pacifist organization and probably represent 20,000,000 Protestants in the United States. However, its leadership consists of a small radical group which dictates its policies. It is always extremely active in any matters against national defense."

Past Record of FCC

In the past, the Council has gone on record in favor of the League of Nations, World Court, and disarmament and it has opposed such measures as the Naval Bill, the Un-American Activities Committee, and (in cooperation with the Red American Civil Liberties Union) has objected to the deportation or exclusion of alien reds. The Federal Council's attacks on free enterprise, capitalism and the American way of life and its endorsements of socialism are numerous. In 1932, the Council stated in an official report: "The Christian ideal calls for hearty support of a planned economic system. It demands that cooperation shall replace competition as a fundamental method." Also in 1932, they adopted the following: "The churches should stand for social planning and control of the credit and monetary systems and the economic processes."

Illicit Sex Relations

The communist plan for the breakdown of morality was followed to perfection by the FCC's issuance of a disgusting sex pamphlet, "Young People's Relationships," prepared by Benjamin S. Winchester who was secretary of the Council at the time. The booklet "Sugar Coating Communism," by Gen. Amos Fries calls this manual, "A crowning achievement of the Federal Council controlling group along the line of preparing the way for atheistic communism." In the second printing of the pamphlet, possibly because of Gen. Fries' exposure, the reference to FCC sponsorship was cleverly deleted.

For additional facts which certainly leave no doubt regarding the activities of the Federal Council let us consider the case of Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, Socialist from Japan. In 1935, Kagawa, through the influence of the Council, was permitted entry into the U. S. for a seven months' visit. While here, he toured the country delivering lectures under the sponsorship of the Federal Council. In order to give a clearer picture of Kagawa's beliefs and opinions it must be noted here that his was the first name listed as being one of the corresponding editors for the bulletin, "Economic Justice," a publication issued by the National Religion and Labor Foundation (a pro-Soviet organization to which several members of the FCC belonged). The Nov. 1932 issue of "Economic Justice" flagrantly displayed a blasphemous cartoon of Christ by Art Young of the staff of the Communist atheist "New Masses". The Federal Council again showed its true colors by its complete acceptance and sponsorship of a man of such caliber.

FCC Leader Views on Communism

Not only do we have the above mentioned activities as unassailable proof of the Red record of the Council but the leaders themselves have issued statements about Communism and Socialism that make their stand unmistakably clear. Do the following quotations coincide with your beliefs?

"Is it not probable that the greatest event of the 20th Century thus far is the Soviet Revolution and all it has meant to human welfare?" (Prof. Jerome Davis, long time member of the Federal Council inner circle)

"When the Western world was flourishing in an unjust and competitive order. . . . God reached out and put his hand on the Russian communists to produce a juster order and to show recumbent church what it has missed in its own gospel." (E. Stanley Jones, Federal Council-sponsored preacher and speaker.)

"Denominationally I am a Presbyterian; religiously a Unitarian; and politically, I'm a Communist. I'm not preaching to make people good or anything of the sort. I'm in the church because I can reach people easier that way and get them organized for Communism." (Rev. Claude C. Williams, a confessed Communist Party member, Director of People's Institute of Applied Religion and long-time intimate of prominent Federal Council personalities.)

"God for us cannot be . . . an . . . avenging Being who because of Adam's sin must have his Shylockian pound of flesh. No wonder the honest boy in justifiable repugnance could say, 'dirty bully'." (Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, FCC President, 1944-46, "Preaching in a Revolutionary Age", page 79).

Red Bishop Oxnam

The reference to Bishop Oxnam is a reminder that no account of the Federal Council of Churches could be considered complete without a few words on the subject of one of their most radical presidents. It is inconceivable that an organization interested in furthering the ideals of Americanism and Christianity would allow such a man to act in the capacity of president. The fact that they have done so is irrefutable proof of their activities.

The Knoxville Journal (Aug. 16, 1946) carried a front page article protesting the East Tennessee Education Association's invitation to G. Bromley Oxnam to address them on Nov. 1, 1946. The article stated that Oxnam was not a member of the Communist Party, so far as is known but added "A story of his record, however, reveals a remarkable affinity between his activities as churchman and political causes directly or indirectly moving towards objectives espoused by American Reds and world Communism."

Oxnam and A. C. L. U.

Bishop Oxnam's affiliations and activities constituted sufficient basis for concern on the part of the editors of the above mentioned newspaper. In 1940, Oxnam became national committeeman of the American Civil Liberties Union. Despite the altruistic motives that may be suggested by its title, the Congressional Committee to Investigate Communism had the following to say: "The A. C. L. U. is closely affiliated with the communist movement in the United States, and fully 90 per cent of its efforts are on behalf of Communists who have come into conflict with the law. It claims to stand for free speech, free press, and free assembly, but it is quite apparent that the main function of the A. C. L. U. is to attempt to protect the communists in their advocacy of force and violence to overthrow the government."

The Dies Committee cited the following connections of Bishop Oxnam: editorial advisor of the "Protestant"; his membership in "American Round Table on India" (whose secretary was Robert Norton, well-known member of the Communist party); his sponsorship of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. Also in evidence was his membership on the Communist Party's National Reception Committee to the Russian Delegation.

In 1928, Oxnam was executive secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Service and later became its vice-president. Concerning this organization, the California Committee on Un-American Activities reported: "Among the more conspicuous fronts for Communist activity in the field of relief assistance, and welfare work, a statement in their Social Service Bulletin No. 8, 1932 admits co-operation with the Communists."

The Red record of Bishop Oxnam which could adequately fill pages more, has been presented with limitations. However, it is sufficient indication not only of his personal tendencies but also indisputable evidence of the policies of the organization of which he was president - the Federal Council.

RED AFFILIATIONS OF OTHER FCC LEADERS

To complete the history of the organization which later became known as the National Council of Churches, we list just a few of the hundreds of officers, leaders and prominent members of the FCC who have aided and abetted atheistic, un-American organizations:

Henry A. Atkinson - American Committee to Save Refugees, American Round Table on India, American Youth Congress, League of American Writers, Signer of "World of Tomorrow" Poll.

Henry Emerson Fosdick - American Civil Liberties Union, Emergency Peace Mobilization, Fellowship of Reconciliation.

L. O. Hartman - American Friends of Spanish Democracy, American League for Peace and Democracy, Methodist Federation for Social Action, National Negro Congress.

Halford E. Luccock - Committee on Militarism in Education, Conference on Constitutional Liberties in America, Socialist Party, Washington Committee to Lift the Spanish Embargo.

Reinhold Niebuhr - Consumers' National Federation, League for Industrial Democracy, National Religion and Labor Foundation.

Harry F. Ward - American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, American Fund for Public League Against War and Fascism, Civil Rights Congress, Conference on Pan-American Democracy.

(A far more complete record of Federal Council members may be obtained by writing COMMON SENSE for the pamphlet, "How Red is the National (Federal) Council of Churches" published by the American Council of Christian Laymen. Single copy - $.15)

It is a matter of record that Communist organizations, in order to destroy opposition and more effectively carry on their work, have "disbanded", only to re-appear under a new name, retaining their original aims and purposes. Similarly, at a Constituting Convention in Cleveland, Ohio (Nov. 28 to Dec. 1, 1950) the FCC "went underground" by merging with other interdenominational organizations under the name, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.

(In our next issue, we will deal with the NCC and its leaders with particular emphasis on the records of the men who dared to set themselves up as authorities on the translation of the Bible.)

Velde On Red Clerics

The controversial statement of Representative Velde that Red infiltration into religion might be investigated was based on an official document showing 150 clerics affiliated with Communist fronts. Representative Velde has in his possession a dossier completed from the committee files, citing 85 ministers linked with Red fronts, and they include names from all denominations. Reports on some individuals cover 4 or 5 pages and not a few of these clerics have been members of the Communist party.

Communist fronts are now opening up their meetings with prayer. This is to get people to believe that religion is a part of Communism. And it has been accurately timed by the Reds to put the House Committee on Un-American Activities in an awkward position.

Let's back up patriot Velde, and demand that he be given a green light on the church investigation.

BRICKER RESOLUTION

One of the most important matters to come up before this session of Congress is the Bricker Resolution.

This Resolution would amend the Constitution to prohibit any treaty made by the Chief Executive which infringes on the Constitution or subjects American citizens to the jurisdiction of foreign courts in matters which it is their right to settle in the domestic courts of their own country. In view of the character of the Convention Against Genocide and the Proposed Covenant on Human Rights before the UN, it is important the rights of American citizens be protected and not infringed upon by these or other proposed amendments. The adoption of either of the latter two proposals would just about end individual freedom as we know it today. WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN IMMEDIATELY AND DEMAND THAT THE BRICKER RESOLUTION BE BROUGHT BEFORE CONGRESS IMMEDIATELY, SO THAT A SUITABLE AMENDMENT MAY BE ADOPTED AND SUBMITTED TO THE STATES FOR RATIFICATION.

Negative or Positive We Still Fight For Christianity

The editor and staff of COMMON SENSE have been so pressed for time and constantly under fire by the enemy that many important facts are overlooked. Because of the shortage of time, money and facilities we have been unable to give the American people more than a fraction of the news and information available.

Because of this some new readers to COMMON SENSE hesitate to be convinced of the facts contained therein. They remark the paper has a "negative approach" and should be handled in a positive and constructive manner.

No one realizes this better than the editor and staff of Common Sense. We fully realize our approach is negative in a manner of speaking. However, there are many good reasons for retaining this so-called "negative approach".

The positive approach and the one we consider the most important, is the religious or spiritual build-up of Christianity. This method of education would be sufficient if the majority of the Christians were not indifferent to the Commandments of God, and if the enemy did not have control of the reins of the positive educational system.

Common Sense, being a national movement of all Christian denominations, cannot with prudence or effectiveness deal with the religious and spiritual education of Christians with the positive approach as the ONLY means of education.

Common Sense is alive today, through the grace of Almighty God, for one main reason: TO THROW A SPOTLIGHT ON THE ENEMY IN DARK CORNERS OF THE EARTH, TO TAKE THE LAMB'S WOOL OFF THE WOLF, AND TO SEND UP A RED DANGER SIGNAL TO THOSE WHO FOLLOW THE POSITIVE APPROACH BLINDLY.

The negative and positive approaches go hand in hand when dealing with any type of diabolical force. They cannot be separated. Our Lord and Master, to whom we look for guidance taught us this with His example on earth. He exposed His enemies and at the same time prayed to God the Father in Heaven. Any firm believer in Jesus Christ knows this and acts accordingly. Our trouble today is that we have too many people who claim to be followers of Christ but hesitate to imitate Him when it appears that he or she is going to suffer as a result. They will not point a finger at His enemy if their financial or social position is jeopardized. No, they will not run the risk of being persecuted and deprived of their luxuries. They are followers of Jesus Christ so long as it doesn't hurt, but if it hurts they turn their back on His teachings and example and race madly through their consciences for an escape. Yes, it was all right for Christ to go to His agony and death on the cross for the truth, but too many of our modern-day Christians postpone any inconvenience to their comfortable mode of living until it is forced upon them. Siberia is full of these Christians and, unfortunately, so is the United States of America.

John Foster Dulles

Smith, in "Why We Went To War in Korea," in the Saturday Evening Post of November 10, 1950, quotes the telegram which Dulles sent to the State Department on June 25, 1950,

"If it appears that the South Koreans cannot repulse the attack, then we believe that United States forces should be used."

Just who "we" could be, in this instance, is not disclosed. Probably he meant himself and Barney Baruch.

Besides the credit for the Korean War, John Foster Dulles can also claim full credit for appointing the Communist spy Alger Hiss as President of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. John W. Davis, a famous lawyer and Democratic candidate for President in 1924, told a House committee on Dec. 10, 1952 that John Foster Dulles was the first person to recommend Hiss for the job. Why not? Hiss was an old friend of the Dulles boys and Ike Eisenhower in the council on Foreign Relations. If Chambers had not exposed him, there is not the slightest doubt that Hiss would now be an Assistant Secretary of State under Dulles, instead of being locked up as a traitor to America. When Dulles put him up for his job, he was besieged with warnings of Hiss' Communist background. Not only did he pooch-pooch these charges, which were made by responsible people, but he refused to look at the evidence. Perhaps this evidence could have endangered Dulles' own appointment, for he was named Chairman of the Carnegie fund the same day Hiss was appointed President. Dulles and Hiss were on the best of terms, worked together very closely, and it seems impossible that a man of Dulles' wide connections in intelligence work could have failed to know of Hiss' Communist espionage. The question is: Did he deliberately dismiss evidence of Hiss' treason? Alfred Kohlberg testified before the House Committee on Dec. 17, 1952 that he personally called on Dulles in December, 1946 to warn him of Hiss' Communism. Dulles replied, "Oh yes, I've heard several times that he was a sort of fellow traveler, but I don't condemn a man without first-hand proof."

Nevertheless, Dulles refused to look at any proof. The New York Times of Dec. 18, 1948, carried on an inside page the story of the prominent Detroit lawyer, Larry S. Davidow, who had two years earlier told Dulles that Alger Hiss had a provable Communist record, in a letter written to Dulles on Dec. 23, 1946 in an effort to head off Hiss' appointment to the Carnegie post. Dulles replied by letter on Dec. 26, 1946, that Hiss had already been named to the position and that Hiss' loyalty was above suspicion. Fulton Lewis read both letters over the radio on Dec. 17, 1948. In response to the evidence that Dulles had been the collaborator of Alger Hiss, Dulles refused to appear and testify before a special House Committee on Dec. 27, 1952. The Committee offered John Foster Dulles the privilege of appearing any day which suited him but no day suited Mr. Dulles. No doubt he remembered that a perjury conviction from testimony before just such a committee had put his friend Alger Hiss in prison.

With the able assistance of Alger Hiss, John Foster Dulles guided the United Nations through its first trying months. Dulles has never been reticent about his determination to destroy the American Republic, wipe out the liberty and sovereignty of this nation under God, and place us at the mercy of a handful of professional internationalists as ruthless and cunning as himself. On October 22, 1949, he wrote the Secretary Mr. Moore, of the Atlantic Union Committee as follows: "As a Senator I shall vote for the Atlantic Union Resolution (S. Reg. 57)". On November 22, 1952, John Foster Dulles sent a telegram to Mr. Henry, Chairman of the Buffalo Atlantic Union Committee, affirming his support of their treasonable activities. On October 28, 1953, the Atlantic Union Committee met with the United World Federalist in Cleveland, Ohio, and decided that "To implement these policies the Assembly adopted five major objectives for the coming year, the first of which was to work for the passage of a Congressional resolution which would call for a declaration by the United States Government that the development of the United Nations into a world federation is the fundamental objective of the American foreign policy."

That this is Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' present course is revealed by his speech before the National Council of Churches of Christ in Denver on December 10, 1952, in which he laid down the program he would follow as Secretary of State in the Eisenhower Cabinet. First he said that he would strengthen the powers of the United Nations. Second, he would put an end to discrimination at home. Third, he would increase the amount of money which America is giving away abroad.

The National Council of Churches of Christ under its former name, the Federal Council of Churches of Christ was cited for its Communist-front activities in Government documents at least six times, while Dulles was legal counsel for it. It is indicative of his allegiances that he chose this group to deliver his definitive statement on his plans as Secretary of State.

IS COMMUNISM Anti-Semitic?

Dear Mr. McGinley:

Just as back in the 1930's, there were certain interests propagandizing Britons and Americans, thru all possible channels, to go to war with Germany because of an alleged persecution, and finally the alleged killing of 6,000,000 Jews by the Nazis, now practically the same interests are building up in America an excuse for USA to go to war with Russia. They claim that the 3,000,000 Jews behind the Iron Curtain are being persecuted and a small number being killed. In the mouth of the man who nominated General Eisenhower, Gov. of Md. Theo R. McKeldin in his speech Dec. 4 1952, the "they" or "we" threaten Russia:

"WE SHALL NOT LET the current revelation of COMMUNIST ANTI-SEMITISM become a passing issue as similar revelations in the past. THE SOFT DEAL FOR COMMUNISTS IS NEARING ITS END."

The press claims that no American attended the Prague "purge trials", nor saw any of them liquidated. Fact that it is publicized that 11 of the 14 Czechoslovakian leaders "purged", were Jews, proves the control that Red Jews exercised in that country; but what is not equally publicized is the fact that there are still seven Jews running that country. Future history will probably disclose the above "persecution" to be the same kind of hoax and "big lie" that Hitler's alleged killing of 6,000,000 Jews proved to be.

"United Nations World" for DEC., 1952, page 6, says: "In 1925, when the last pre-Hitler census was taken, there were 584,579 Jews living in the German Reich".

"Must Men Hate?", by Sigmund Livingston, founder, and for 30 years Chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith (certainly must be considered an authentic Jewish source), Copyright 1944 by Harper & Brothers, published by The World Publishing Co., 2231 West 110th Street, Cleveland 2, Ohio. Forum Books Division, First Printing, SEPTEMBER, 1945, states on page 148: "Before the Nazi regime the German Jew constituted LESS THAN 1 PER CENT of the German population." Repeated on pages 62, 91, 126, 127, 128 and pages 205 and 206 the following statement first voiced on pages 62: "... there were then (1932) only 550,000 JEWS IN ALL GERMANY, including men, women and children."

Out of the mouth of official Jewry, above is positive proof that Hitler could not have killed 600,000 Jews, let alone 6,000,000. Statistics show that from 1832 on up to 1939, the outbreak of World II, most of the 550,000 Jews had fled to the USA and other parts of the world. Congress must not permit the current alleged "persecution of Russian Jews" to be juggled into a reason, as was done in the 1930s and early 1940s for the USA going to war against Russia. Being forewarned is being forearmed.

For Christ and Country;

CHARLES B. HUDSON

First, he will increase the power of alien officials of the United Nations, including Soviet officials, over American citizens. Second he will stop "discrimination." This could only be done by clamping down an iron dictatorship on the thoughts, speeches, and writings of free American citizens. Third, he will intensify the giveaway program which has done so much to weaken us in the face of Russian aggression.

Significantly, he said nothing about stopping the Korean War in which he played such a prominent role in the beginning. He is only concerned with the civil rights of minorities, and to ensure those civil rights, he will take away all of the civil rights of the majority of white Americans. Can he carry out his insane program of reducing our people to helpless robots who await the Jewish Communist onslaught? Or will Americans once more assert their right to bear arms in the defense of their homes and families against alien aggressors? That is the issue at stake, and John Foster Dulles, the Aaron Burr of today, regardless of his Nazi affiliations or his Communist affiliations, has shown time and again where he stands in respect to the constitutional rights of free-born American citizens. The challenge has been thrown down to us. Will we silently watch our liberties stripped from us one by one or will we make the protest which decency demands of us? Let us leave to our children at least a few of the rights and privileges of American citizenship to which we were born and which our forefathers fought to secure for us.

Will Dulles be more subversive than his understudy, Dean Acheson, was?
